

Different Coffees Different Tastes

only @ bright coffee

sipping a daily coffee is like sunshine in a cup, so let's dive into those coffee sales and chart our caffeine-fueled path forward!

the chart is showing the total revenue per product type with barista espresso having the highest revenue the peak time when sales are high its in the morning with the percentage of 37% followed by afternoon with the percentage of 31%.

the highest units sold is coffee on the product category .

the best selling products are:

brewed chai tea

barista espresso

gourmet coffee

there is need to increase on the barista coffee as well as the gourmet brewed coffee and the chai tea cause of the high revenue there bringing to us. and also let this be done for morning aswell as afternoon.

we can have a promotional sale of the sugar free syrup and other products so as to boost the sale of these items or a free testing of any items to others that buy at a certain price.

together we can
thank you.
